Day 01 _____ / BANGKOK / HUA HIN (Dinner)

Upon arrival at Suvarnabhumi Airport and after clearing customs, please proceed to the Meeting Point area at Exit B (Gate 06) of the arrival hall on Level 2. For passengers arriving at Don Muang Airport, please proceed to Door 2 at the arrival hall. Embark on an approximately 230-kilometre journey Southwest of Bangkok to Hua Hin, Thailand's Royal Beach Resort; with a stop mid-way to visit Phra Nakhon Khiri Historic Park which sits regally at the peak of a 92-meter verdant hill overlooking the ancient city of Phetchaburi. Built during the reign of King Rama IV (King Mongkut) as a royal retreat, Khao Wang meaning "hill with palace" as it is better known to the locals, is palace complex comprising of royal halls, palaces, temples as well as other building which were elegantly constructed in harmonious Thai, neoclassical Western and Chinese architectural styles. On arrival at Hua Hin, immerse in the charming and romantic ambience of The Venezia - a unique lifestyle shopping destination with over 360 stores offering a variety of fashion and accessories as well as trendy restaurants and pubs. This 73,600m<sup>2</sup> Venice-inspired theme shopping and attraction village also feature replicas of Venice's most symbolic landmarks such as The Bell Tower of San Marco, Piazza San Marco, Trevi Fountain as well as a 200-meter Grand Canal with the iconic Gondola ride that navigates around the village.

Day 02 HUA HIN (Breakfast, Lunch)

After breakfast, start the day with a visit to Hua Hin Railway Station - one of Thailand's oldest railway stations with a long cultural heritage and unique architecture. Its splendid Royal Waiting Room used to be a royal pavilion at Sanam Chan Palace during the reign of King Rama IV which was relocated and rebuilt at Hua Hin Railway Station in 1968. Continue on to PlearnWan - a vintage village containing two-storey wooden complexes of stylized old-fashioned shop houses, a reminiscent of those that once made up the Thai-Chinese neighbourhoods of Bangkok and Hua Hin. Wander around the classic charms of old Hua Hin and enjoy a little shopping for some local delicacies, vintage merchandise, retro souvenirs, etc... After lunch, visit Swiss Sheep Farm that features both natural beauty as well as scenic landscape á la Switzerland. Experience being a shepherd, bottle-feed a calf, pet or take pictures with the sheep; enjoy riding a pony; take part in fun yet romantic activities where couples can help each other to hang a key of love as a symbol of everlasting relationship; etc... << some activities at Swiss Sheep Farm are optional, at own expense >> Thereafter, continue on to explore a slice of picture-perfect Greek Island at Santorini Park - an amusement theme park with boutique-style shopping in an array of nicely presented whitewashed buildings, colourfully painted windows, stone-paved paths as well as domed towers inspired by the picturesque Greek Island. << rides and activities at Santorini Park are optional, at own expense >>. In the evening, enjoy a stroll around Hua Hin Night market for a fascinating insight into the local people's lifestyle where one can find countless stalls selling freshly cooked local delicacies as well as an overwhelming variety of local handicrafts, souvenirs as well as clothing.

Day 03 HUA HIN (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, start the day with a visit to Hua Hin Hills Vineyard, the seaside resort town's first boutique vineyard. Nestled on the verdant mountain valley approximately 45 kilometres west of Hua Hin and built on the site of a former elephant corral, the terrain is conducive to the cultivation of grapes and production of award-winning "New Latitude Wines". Thereafter, enjoy a sightseeing tour around Khao Takiab with its iconic "Chopstick Hill" where one can enjoy the scenic coastlines of beautiful beaches and visit Wat Huay Mongkol - home to the famous Giant Luang Phor Thuad statue, a Buddhist monk famed for his "miracles" and lived some 400 years ago; before continuing on to enjoy a couple of fun-filled hours at Vana Nava Hua Hin - home to Asia's First "Water Jungle" that combines an exotic tropical environment with world class rides and slides, an overwhelming array of attractions as well as iconic architectural and interactive facilities. The park's highlights include The Abyss which is poised to be Thailand's largest slide and Vana Nava Falls which towering at 31 meters is Asia's tallest manmade waterfall in Asia.

Day 04 HUA HIN / BANGKOK / _____ (Breakfast)

After breakfast, journey approximately 110 kilometres North of Hua Hin to visit Damnoen Saduak on a long tail boat (additional paddle boat ride is optional, at your own expense) one of the most famous floating markets near Bangkok. This vibrant market features many colourfully clad merchants in small boats laden with fruits and vegetables paddling along congested canals. It's a very attractive place for tourist to see this old style and traditional way of selling and buying goods. If time permits, continue on to visit Wat Bang Kung, a small temple that is completely enclosed within the mighty roots of a Banyan Tree and dates back to the Ayutthaya period; OR "Talad Rom Hoop" Maeklong Railway Market in Samut Songkhram Province. As its name in Thai which literally translates to "Umbrella Pull-down Market" suggests, part of the market is situated on the railway. Eight times daily, the market will come to a standstill while the vendors hastily scoop up their baskets of goods that are lying over the railway tracks and hold on to the poles supporting their low-hanging awnings or umbrellas to make way for the trains to pass. As soon as the last coach rolls through, the market will unfold and within seconds, spring back to life as if nothing has happened. Thereafter, return to Bangkok Suvarnabhumi or Don Muang Airport for your onwards journey.
